1 / ALL SQUARED AWAY

The interplay of colors in the paintings of Josef Albers inspired French designer Hervé Langlais's Homage to the Cube side tables. Each limited-edition piece is made of lacquered palm wood with brass trim. Small: 14.5" sq.; medium: 17" sq.; large: 20" sq.; $4,100 each. negropontes-galerie.com

2 / FRINGE ELEMENTS

Les Indiennes turns an Indian border into a repeated stripe for its Adele summer-weight bedcover, made of a single layer of cotton hand-block printed using natural indigo dye. Full/queen: 96" x 98", $164; other sizes are available. lesindiennes.com

3 / GOING ELECTRIC

For Bamboo Trellis, part of her collection for the Rug Company, English designer Neisha Crosland copied the pattern of a timeworn wall fresco and added fluorescent colors reminiscent of Dan Flavin's light installations. The rug is handmade of Tibetan wool and silk. 6' x 9", $9,558; custom sizes and colors are available. therugcompany.com

4 / COVER CHARGE

Handmade in Lombardy, Italy, the iron Pontina Garden chair by Sotow is varnished with a blaze of color and features a cushion of Indian cotton or suede. Wine, shown, is one of several colors. 16" w. x 16.5" d. x 33" h., $780 for set of two; artemest.com

5 / CARRY ON

Designer Ole Gjerløv-Knudsen created the Safari daybed in 1962 when his son was embarking on a camping trip. Made of beech, linen, and sisal rope, it quickly assembles without screws and comes with a carrier bag. 30" w. x 81" l. x 14" h., $760; other fabric colors are available. goodswelove.nyc
